PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a warrant.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-------------------------	--------------------------------

1	Special Condition # 19: You shall abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, and shall submit to urinalysis testing, as directed by the supervising officer, but no more than six tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from these substances.
---	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Supporting Evidence: On August 20, 2015, Dominique Ryan signed her judgment for case number 2:15CR00030-WFN-2, indicating she understood all conditions ordered by the Court. Specifically, Ms. Ryan was made aware by her U.S. probation officer that she may not use illegal controlled substances and shall submit to urine testing as directed by the supervising officer.

On December 14, 2017, Dominique Ryan admitted to the undersigned officer that she consumed methamphetamine between the dates of December 10 through 12, 2017.

Ms. Ryan also violated the terms of her supervised release by failing to report as directed to submit to urine testing on December 13, 2017.
